

The Good Italian, the fashion film Caruso makes you want to become an Italian prince

Do you want to visit an Italian palace, wearing a magnificent suit Caruso and provide with the best wine of the region in the company of a prince of Soragna? It's lifestyle of a good Italian presented to us The Good Italian , a short film that takes us to Italy away from the tourists but full enjoyment of small pleasures life.

Short “ The Good Italian ” has as protagonist with the famous actor Giancarlo Giannini nominated for Oscars in 1977 and star of movies like Casino Royale, Quantum of Solace, or Hannibal, and tells the story of a couple of British tourists visiting the region Soragna , and randomly After meeting with an old ramshackle house field discovered within it a real palace where Prince (Giannini) invited to live an authentic experience Caruso , starting with clothes and ending with the culinary star of the region, the culatello.

At the moment, we settle for seeing trailer but soon, during the fashion week in Milan (June 18-22), will be submit full short film at Caruso Store Milan . Then I'll show completely. Menswear also joins fashion of fashion films , and we love it.